FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HALOGEN INC. JOINS KONECT RESELLER PARTNER PROGRAM

CALGARY, Alberta, June 29th, 2005 – desktopsites Inc. (“desktopsites”), a rapidly emerging leader in access infrastructure serverware for small businesses, is pleased to announce the addition of Halogen Inc. (“Halogen”) to its Konect™ Reseller partner program. With over 25 years of accumulated computer and networking experience, Halogen is a company dedicated to installing, supplying & designing Information Technology Solutions for small and medium size businesses.

“Predictability, reliability and reduced IT costs are the priorities for our customers,” said Andrew Bensinger, President of Halogen. “We see solutions like Konect as a perfect fit for these customer needs. It will allow us to not only manage our customers’ IT environments more efficiently and cost effectively but we can also leverage Konect as a means to more efficiently deliver our services to our customers. We anticipate realizing these benefits and more in our relationship with desktopsites.”

“Halogen is a leading technology service provider that experiences the challenges of their customers’ IT environments every day. We are pleased to be welcoming them to our Konect Reseller partner program and look forward to providing them with an additional tool to enhance their capabilities with their customers,” said Alex Bethlehem, President and CEO of desktopsites. “Halogen has shown an excellent appreciation for the fit Konect will have with their customers and their own service provisioning for their clients. As we see it, Halogen’s customers will realize time, resource and cost efficiencies as will Halogen in their own operations.”
