FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IPCORE JOINS KONECT RESELLER PARTNER PROGRAM

CALGARY, Alberta, May 17, 2007 – desktopsites Inc. (“desktopsites”), a rapidly emerging leader in application delivery solutions for small and mid-size businesses, is pleased to announce the addition of IPcore Inc. (“IPcore”) to its Konect™ Reseller Partner Program. IPcore is a global consultancy company specializing in Information Technology and Telecommunications solutions.

“As IT environments increase in complexity, organizations seek experienced professionals to provide them with strategic and tactical guidance and solutions that help simplify the management and delivery of their services,” says Thoufiqul Islam, CEO of IPcore. “Our experienced consultants provide our clients with confidence that the plans developed and solutions delivered are designed to leverage years of real-world experience and address their unique needs. For this reason our consultants are deliberate in selecting technologies such as Konect that we can recommend and implement for our customers to ensure we maintain our quality-driven reputation in the marketplace.”

“The addition of IPcore to our Konect Reseller Program is another excellent example of the interest and respect that Konect is commanding in the Canadian IT market,” said Alex Bethlehem, President and CEO of desktopsites. “IPcore is a widely respected IT consultancy with a reputation of providing excellent services and solutions to their customers. We are excited to be working with IPcore and are looking forward to expanding Konect’s presence in Ontario.”
